Pursing your interest in a virtual world

Got the travel bug but can't leave home? Itching to go to your favourite museums or learn about wildlife? Here are 4 tips for things to do without leaving the couch.

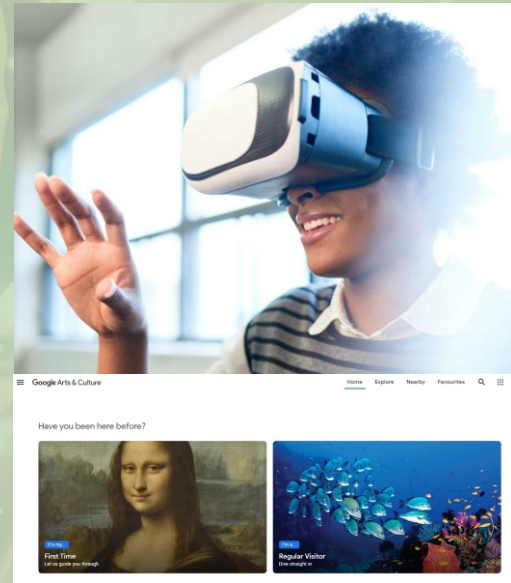

Just because you can't leave, doesn't mean you shouldn't learn and experience the world. Put together a list of things you'd like to see and share them with friends!

Can't travel due to costs, travel restrictions, or don't have friends who can travel with you. TMP has the answer. We have put together some things you can share with your friends from the comfort of your home, without having to travel anywhere.

Visit these site below and explore, travel and have fun with your friends.
